Deputies of the Kazakh Senate ratified the Treaty on Allied Relations between Kazakhstan and Tajikistan, Qazinform News Agency reports.

According to Senator Darkhan Kydyrali the treaty aimed at elevating cooperation across multiple areas was signed by the Heads of State on August 22, 2024, in Dushanbe as part of the working visit of the Kazakh President to Tajikistan.

He emphasized that Tajikistan is an important and reliable strategic partner of Kazakhstan. Commodity turnover between the two nations exceeded 1 billion US dollars. Currently, the governments are working to increase trade to up to 2 billion US dollars.
