Bangladesh values rights and seeks national dignity in foreign ties, Foreign Minister Khalilur Rahman said Saturday at the Antalya Diplomacy Forum in Türkiye, as he discussed democracy transition in the South Asian nation.

The relationship with other countries should be mutually beneficial and should not be one-sided. So, that is the basic thrust of our policy, said Rahman, who was appointed top diplomat after the Bangladesh Nationalist Party won a landslide victory in Februarys general elections.

He said Dhakas foreign policy motto is Bangladesh first.
