ITALY AND GERMANY DEFEND ISRAEL IN EU SANCTIONS TALKS

22.04.2026

EU Observer (21 April 2025)

Andrew RETTMAN

Italy and Germany have defended Israel from EU trade sanctions, but momentum is building for action on West Bank settlers.

I do not believe that breaking a trade agreement is a useful tool, because then the general Israeli population will be affected, said Italian foreign minister Antonio Tajani in Luxembourg on Tuesday (21 April).

We have a similar position to that of the German Federal Republic, he said.
