Kyiv Post (25 April 2026)

Following historic talks in Baku, President Zelensky and President Aliyev announced a major expansion of military-technical cooperation and plans to boost bilateral trade beyond $500 million.

Ukraine and Azerbaijan signed six bilateral documents on Saturday, April 25, focusing on defense cooperation and joint industrial production during President Volodymyr Zelenskys first visit to Baku since the start of Russias full-scale invasion.

Following high-level negotiations with Azerbaijan's President Ilham Aliyev, Zelensky emphasized that security and the defense-industrial complex are now the top priorities for the partnership, Ukrinform reported.
