The Majilis of the Kazakh Parliament has ratified the Agreement between the governments of the Republic of Kazakhstan and the Peoples Republic of China on encouragement and mutual protection of investments, Qazinform News Agency reports.

According to Deputy Foreign Minister Alibek Kuantyrov, the agreement was signed on June 16, 2025, during the Chinese leaders visit to Astana.

The document updates the existing international treaty between Kazakhstan and China as of August 10, 1992, expands the two countries investment capabilities, offers new mechanisms of protection and guarantee and elevates the bilateral cooperation to a new level.
