Daily Sabah (20 May 2026)

Russia on Wednesday accused Armenia of taking actions that undermine the spirit of its longstanding alliance with Moscow, signaling deepening tensions between the two traditional allies.

According to Russia's state news agency TASS, Moscow said recent steps by Yerevan were "inconsistent with the spirit of allied relations," amid Armenia's growing engagement with Western partners and ongoing friction over regional security issues.

Russian Security Council Secretary Sergei Shoigu also called the "number of actions taken by Armenias leadership "clearly unfriendly.
