KAZINFORM (21 May 2026)

Zhanna Nurmaganbetova

The UN General Assembly unanimously adopted a resolution on Peaceful Resolution of Border Disputes, initiated by Kyrgyzstan together with Tajikistan and Uzbekistan, Qazinform News Agency cites Kabar.

It was co-sponsored by more than 40 states.

The resolution showcases Central Asia's historic achievement in settling sensitive border issues through dialogue, negotiation, and other peaceful means in line with the UN Charter and international law.

It promotes a universal principle: border disputes should be resolved with peace, rule of law, and dialogue.
