CHINA URGES COOPERATION AS ASIA PACIFIC TRADE MINISTERS MEET IN SUZHOU

- 22.05.2026

Anadolu Agency (22 May 2026)

Trade ministers from Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) economies gathered in the eastern Chinese city of Suzhou on Friday for a two-day meeting.

Chinas international trade envoy Li Chenggang opened the APEC forum, urging regional economies to send a strong message to the world in support of cooperation.

Chinas call came amid mounting concerns over global protectionism and the impact of US President Donald Trumps America First trade agenda.
