TÜRKİYE WELCOMES ARMENIA ELECTION, HOPES FOR PROGRESS TOWARD PEACE DEAL

- 09.06.2026

Daily Sabah (8 June 2026)

Türkiye on Monday welcomed the successful completion of Armenia's parliamentary election and expressed hope that the post-election period would create conditions conducive to the signing of a final peace agreement between Armenia and Azerbaijan.

In a statement, the Foreign Ministry said it was pleased that the election had been conducted peacefully and wished the results to be beneficial for the Armenian people.

The ministry voiced hope that developments following the vote would pave the way for a comprehensive peace agreement between Armenia and Azerbaijan, a step seen as critical for lasting stability in the South Caucasus.
