- 17.06.2026

The Caspian Post (17 June 2026)

Several documents have been signed between Azerbaijan and Uzbekistan, in the presence of both countries' Prime Ministers, Ali Asadov and Abdulla Aripov, in Tashkent.

The ceremony took place as part of Asadov's working visit to Uzbekistan to attend the 5th Tashkent International Investment Forum at the invitation of the Uzbek side, The Caspian Post reports via Azertac.

The signed agreements cover the joint development of a gold mining project in Uzbekistan by AzerGold CJSC, enhanced banking cooperation between the International Bank of Azerbaijan OJSC and a partner financial institution in Uzbekistan, as well as collaboration on critical minerals projects involving NEQSOL Holding.
