
AZERBAIJAN TO HELP UZBEKISTAN DEVELOP MINING SECTOR

- 18.06.2026

Eurasianet (17 June 2026)

Tashkent looking for more control over mining-sector value chain.

Azerbaijan and Uzbekistan are strengthening economic connections, signing a variety of agreements covering mining, banking and tourism.

Uzbek Prime Minister Abdulla Aripov and his Azerbaijani counterpart, Ali Asadov, presided June 16 over a signing ceremony in Tashkent of a cooperation agreement under which the two countries will jointly develop an Uzbek gold deposit as well as other mineral resources.
