The Caspian Post (24 June 2026)

Azerbaijan has officially assumed the presidency of the Parliamentary Union of the Member States of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), taking over the role from Indonesia during a high-profile ceremony in Baku.

The handover took place at the opening of the 20th Session of the Conference of the Parliamentary Union of OIC Member States, one of the largest parliamentary gatherings in the Islamic world, The Caspian Post reports via Report.

More than 400 delegates from OIC member countries, along with representatives of international organizations, are participating in the event, highlighting Azerbaijan's growing role as a platform for international dialogue and cooperation.
