Eurasianet (24 June 2026)

Kazakh President Kassym-Jomart Tokayevs visit to EUs headquarters in Brussels has yielded agreements and MoUs potentially valued at over 12 billion dollars. The key deal involves the purchase of 50 Airbus passenger jets for 7.1 billion euros.

Tokayevs visit, which concluded June 23, focused on developing Middle Corridor trade links within the context of the EUs Global Gateway program. Prominent among Tokayevs meetings in Brussels were discussions with European Commissioner for Trade and Economic Security Maroš Šefčovič, European Union Special Representative for Central Asia Eduards Stiprais and Vice President of the European Investment Bank Marek Mora.
