EU Foreign Ministers are set to agree on new Partnership Mission for Armenia, Kaja Kallas, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the European Commission, said ahead of the Foreign Affairs Council meeting in Brussels.

She said the Mission aims to fight the hybrid threats the country is encountering.

The European Union Partnership Mission in Armenia (EUPM Armenia) is a civilian advisory mission, under the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP). The Mission was established on 21 April 2026.
