Azerbaijani Foreign Ministry spokesperson Ayhan Hajizada said that Russia-Armenia issues should no longer be discussed in a way that links them to Azerbaijan, AzerNEWS reports.

Hajizada made the remarks in response to a question from local media regarding comments by Maria Zakharova, spokesperson for the Russian Foreign Ministry, on the Karabakh region and the Collective Security Treaty Organization (CSTO).

According to Hajizada, Zakharova's latest remarks concerning the former Armenia-Azerbaijan conflict distort reality.
