
WATCH OUT BRUSSELS AND KYIV, POLAND'S CONSERVATIVES ARE VEERING RIGHT

- 30.07.2026

Politico (30 July 2026)

Bartosz Brzezinski

The rupture of Law and Justice is strengthening hardline parties that oppose Ukraines EU membership and may hold the key to Polands next government.

Polands opposition is shifting further to the right ahead of an election next year and that threatens to have a major impact for the EU and Ukraine.

The nationalist Law and Justice party (PiS) that ran the country from 2015 to 2023 □ picking repeated battles with Brussels over rule of law and LGBTQ+ rights □□□□□ last Friday. At its heart, the feud centers on a clash between iron-fisted party leader Jarosław Kaczyński and former Prime Minister Mateusz Morawiecki.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: