Lawmakers in the Armenian parliament began debating a bill on October 27 to ratify the Framework Agreement between the Republic of Armenia and the United States of America on Strategic Cooperation Concerning the Trump Route for International Peace and Prosperity (TRIPP).

The bill was presented by Armenian Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Ararat Mirzoyan, who reaffirmed that the projects infrastructure will operate under Armenias sovereignty and jurisdiction.

The minister recalled that the project is based on the agreements reached in the Washington Declaration of August 8, 2025. These were followed by the agreement on the TRIPP implementation framework and the signing of the interstate agreement now submitted for ratification.
