Armenian Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Ararat Mirzoyan has said that people from Armenia could also accidentally cross into Azerbaijan after getting lost, stressing the need to improve border management.

During discussions on the bill to ratify the Framework Agreement between Armenia and the United States on TRIPP, the minister responded to a question from MP Taguhi Ghazaryan.

Referring to recent cases on the border, the lawmaker asked about Armenias border guard capabilities and the support expected from the United States to develop them.
