President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan sent a congratulatory message to Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev and the Azerbaijani people ahead of the country's Nov. 8 Victory Day while flying through Azerbaijani airspace en route to South Korea on Sunday.

Erdoğan conveyed his greetings and best wishes through the aircraft's pilot radio system, reaffirming Türkiye's commitment to strengthening its alliance and cooperation with Azerbaijan.

"While passing through the airspace of brotherly Azerbaijan during my trip to South Korea, I extend my warmest greetings and best wishes to you and the Azerbaijani people on behalf of myself and my delegation," Erdoğan said.
