Türkiye's institutions and companies continue to support development in Azerbaijan's liberated territories as the two countries deepen their strategic alliance.

Turkish Agriculture and Forestry Minister Ibrahim Yumakli has highlighted the close strategic ties between Türkiye and Azerbaijan, affirming that Turkish institutions and companies continue to contribute directly to the reconstruction and development of territories liberated from occupation.

"Our institutions and companies are also taking part, through their dedicated efforts, in the development and reconstruction drive in territories freed from the darkness of occupation," Yumakli said.
