Azerbaijan and Serbia have discussed ways to strengthen their strategic partnership and expand bilateral cooperation across several key sectors.

According to Azerbaijan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the discussions took place during a meeting between Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov and Serbia's Ambassador to Azerbaijan, Dragan Vladisavljevic, on November 10.

At the beginning of the meeting, Bayramov presented the ambassador with the Order of Friendship, awarded by Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev in recognition of his contributions to the development of relations between the two countries. He also conveyed the president's congratulations.
