Kosovos Prime Minister Albin Kurti has reiterated Pristinas official demands on Belgrade to recognize Kosovos independence and take responsibility for the armed attack in Banjska, in which police officer Afrim Bunjaku was killed. During a discussion with students of the Paris School of International Affairs, Kurti called on Serbia to hand over Milan Radoičić, whom he considered the main organizer of the attack in northern Kosovo.

Speaking about dialogue and the process of normalizing relations between the two countries, the head of Kosovos government stressed that Belgrade must face political reality and accept Kosovo as an independent state. Serbia must recognize Kosovos independence and take responsibility for what happened in Banjska, was the message Kurti conveyed during the conversation.
