Leaders review transport links, trade ties, border delimitation, reaffirm commitment to regional peace, stability.

Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev and Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan discussed steps to advance the peace process between their countries during a meeting on the sidelines of the European Political Community summit in Dublin.

In separate statements following the talks, the Azerbaijani presidency and Armenian prime minister's office said the discussions built on the outcomes of an August 2025 peace summit, where Baku and Yerevan signed a joint declaration and initialed a peace agreement.
