EU Observer (15 November 2026)

Andrew RETTMAN

Russian elites are back on the menu in EU sanctions, but Ukraine peace talks seem to be headed toward another anticlimax.

Tatyana Kim, Russias richest woman and the CEO of online retailer Wildberries, is to face an EU visa-ban and asset-freeze in new sanctions to be agreed by foreign ministers in Brussels on Monday (16 November).

So is Russian gold-mining baron Ruslan Baysarov, Russian venture capitalist Alexander Chachava, and real-estate mogul Sergey Matvienko, according to a leaked EU proposal seen by EUobserver.
