A two-day ministerial meeting of the Economic Cooperation Organization (ECO) kicked off in Pakistan's capital Islamabad on Sunday with an initial gathering of senior officials from member states, a Pakistani Foreign Ministry official told Anadolu.

Foreign ministers and heads of delegations from the 10 member states, along with representatives of the ECO Secretariat and its subsidiary bodies, are participating in the 30th edition of the ECO Council of Ministers Meeting, chaired by top Pakistani diplomat Ishaq Dar.

The main meeting will be held on Monday.
