AVRASYA İNCELEMELERİ MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

TURKISH AMBASSADOR: ADVANCED COOPERATION WITH THE IRAQI GOVERNMENT ON SECURITY, ENERGY, AND WATER ISSUES

-

16.11.2026

Iraqi News Agency (13 November 2026)

Turkish Ambassador to Iraq, Anil Bora İnan, announced on Friday that intensive negotiations are underway with Iraq to reach a new, long-term energy agreement. Noting that there is advanced cooperation between the two countries regarding security, energy, and water issues, he emphasized that Prime Minister Ali Al-Zaidi's visit to Ankara has strengthened the strategic partnership between Iraq and Turkey.

In an interview with the Iraqi News Agency (INA), Ambassador İnan stated, "Prime Minister Ali Al-Zaidi's visit to Turkey is his third foreign trip, following visits to the United States and Iran □□□□□□□□□□□ a shared commitment to further strengthening our multifaceted relations with Iraq. These ties have already seen significant progress across nearly all sectors in recent times."

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: