Armenia did not sign up to the declaration on the fundamental principles of European security adopted in Dublin because of its extensive references to NATO, Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan said. He said Armenia had begun the process of joining the European Union but had set no goal of joining NATO.

Pashinyan made the remarks on 18 November during questions to the government, in response to MP Volodya Hakobyan.

Hakobyan asked why Armenia had not signed up to the document adopted on 12 November at Frances initiative during the European Political Community summit.
