The Center for Eurasian Studies (AVİM) is a think tank that has been consistently carrying out its academic studies on the Turkish-Armenian controversy regarding the 1915 events since its establishment. One of the events that has been organized since 2018 at AVİM, in which academic studies on genocide allegations and related discourse are at the forefront, is the lecture series titled Ömer Engin Lütem Konferansları ("Ömer Engin Lütem Lectures").

For the first time in 2016, the scientific studies of academics, researchers/writers and diplomats who participated to Ermeni Konferansları ("Armenian Lectures") as speakers and their studies related with the Turkish-Armenian controversy were published as a book titled Ermeni Konferansları 2016 ("Armenian Lectures 2016"). The studies presented at the lectures in 2017 and concerning the genocide allegations and related discourse were included in the book titled Ermeni Konferansları 2017.

Following the passing away of the Founder and Honorary President of AVİM Ambassador (R) Ömer Engin Lütem on 6 January 2018, the lecture series organized under the title of Ermeni Konferansları continued with the title Ömer Engin Lütem Konferansları ("Ömer Engin Lütem Lectures"). The articles, which constitute the basis of ten lectures held in 2018 were published as a book titled Türk-Ermeni Uyuşmazlığı Üzerine Ömer Engin Lütem Konferansları 2018 ("Ömer Engin Lütem Lectures 2018 Concerning The Turkish-Armenian Controversy").

The book titled Türk-Ermeni Uyuşmazlığı Üzerine Ömer Engin Lütem Konferansları 2019 ("Ömer Engin Lütem Lectures 2019 Concerning The Turkish-Armenian Controversy"), edited by the Director of AVİM Ambassador (R) Alev Kılıç and published by AVİM, includes ten studies presented at the lectures held in 2019.
