
KAZAKHSTAN, ARMENIA COMMITTED TO DEEPEN COOPERATION

- 19.03.2024

Astana Times (19 March 2024)

Dana Omirgazy

Kazakh Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Murat Nurtleu and Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan expressed mutual commitment to deepening interstate cooperation based on friendship, mutual respect and partnership during their meeting in Yerevan, reported the ministry's press service on March 16.

During the talks, the parties addressed cooperation in political, trade, economic, cultural and humanitarian areas, emphasizing the importance of strengthening the political dialogue at the highest and high levels.

Focusing on trade and economic cooperation, the ministers noted the positive results of mutual trade in 2023, the volume of which increased by 23.1% and reached $53 million. Nurtleu and Mirzoyan agreed to make joint efforts and decisions to identify new opportunities to increase trade turnover.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: