Turkish Foreign Ministry hails move as milestone in Armenia-Azerbaijan peace process.

Türkiye has welcomed the decision by the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) to dissolve the Minsk Group, a body established over three decades ago to mediate the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan over the Karabakh region.

We welcome the decision taken by the OSCE Ministerial Council on September 1, 2025, regarding the dissolution of the Minsk Group and its affiliated structures, the Turkish Foreign Ministry said in a statement on Tuesday.
