Azerbaijan has reaffirmed its proposal to convene the next meeting of the 3+3 regional platform in Baku and to participate in a subsequent meeting in Armenia, Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov said on Monday.

Speaking at a joint press conference in Baku with his Iranian counterpart Seyed Abbas Araghchi, Bayramov recalled that the initiative to establish the 3+3 format had originally been put forward by President Ilham Aliyev, News.Az reports, citing local media.

Three meetings have already been held in this format □ in Russia, Iran, and in 2024 in Türkiye, he said. At the end of the meeting in Türkiye, Azerbaijan proposed holding the next gathering in Azerbaijan. We stated that after a meeting is held in Azerbaijan, we would agree to the following one taking place in Armenia.
