Ilham Aliyev meets delegation led by Tehran's foreign minister in Azerbaijani capital.

Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev on Monday praised renewed momentum in relations with Iran as he met with a visiting delegation led by Tehrans foreign minister.

During talks in Baku, Aliyev said that Iranian President Masoud Pezeshkians recent visit to Azerbaijan, along with a series of reciprocal high-level exchanges, had helped reinvigorate cooperation between the two neighbors, according to a statement by the Azerbaijani presidency.
