Russia remains ready to assist Armenia and Azerbaijan in restoring transport and economic links and addressing humanitarian issues, Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov has said.

According to TASS, Lavrov made the remarks during a joint press conference with Azerbaijani Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov.

Russia consistently supports the efforts of Azerbaijan and Armenia aimed at achieving a full and comprehensive normalisation of relations, based on the trilateral high-level agreements reached in 2020 and 2022. As before, we stand ready to assist both Baku and Yerevan in unblocking transport and economic links and in resolving humanitarian issues, Lavrov said.
