SEMINAR TITLED "CONSTRUCTIVE EURASIANISM: FOSTERING COOPERATION THROUGH THINK TANKS IN THE EURASIAN SPACE"

15.01.2025

We are pleased to invite you to join our upcoming seminar titled "Constructive Eurasianism: Fostering Cooperation Through Think Tanks in the Eurasian Space", featuring Dr. Teoman Ertuğrul Tulun. This event is scheduled for 16 January 2025 (Thursday), from 13:30 to 15:00 (Türkiye hour).

In this seminar, Dr. Tulun will address the concept of Constructive Eurasianism as a collaborative framework aimed at enhancing mutual understanding and cooperation across the Eurasian region. He will explore the influential role of think tanks in shaping policies and fostering dialogue, with an emphasis on their contributions to economics, international relations, and cultural studies. We will discuss the challenges and opportunities for these institutions, including issues related to independence, funding, and political pressures.

This presentation will also address the potential of Constructive Eurasianism to foster economic partnerships, cultural exchanges, and diplomatic cooperation among Turkic states. It aims to present a vision of Eurasia that promotes peace, embraces diversity, and pursues shared prosperity, reflecting the rich heritage and potential of the Turkic world within the broader Eurasian context.

The seminar will be conducted in English without translation services.
