A NEW BOOK BY AVİM AND TERAZİ PUBLISHING: STATE, SOCIETY AND POLITICS IN POST-SOVIET UKRAINE - CHANGING DYNAMICS, TRANSFORMING INDENTITIES

06.04.2020

The book titled State, Society and Politics in Post-Soviet Ukraine - Changing Dynamics, Transforming Identities about the recent developments in Ukraine in the light of the historical background of the country and the complex structure of social dynamics has been published through the collaboration of the Center for Eurasian Studies (AVİM) and Terazi Publishing.

The publication is the end-result of a project by a team of academics and researchers from Bartın University, Başkent University, Karabük University, Middle East Technical University, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv and AVİM headed by Prof. Dr. Ayşegül Aydıngün and Prof. Dr. İsmail Aydıngün. The book is based on observations and 107 in-depth interviews conducted in Ukraine between February 2019 and June 2019, and October 2019 in Ukrainian, Turkish, Crimean Tatar, Russian and English, in addition to a comprehensive literature review and research data obtained from the research centers in Ukraine.

State, Society and Politics in Post-Soviet Ukraine - Changing Dynamics, Transforming Identities, besides introducing Turkeys northern neighbor in the Black Sea region to the Turkish reader, provides first-hand data and objective assessments to academics and researchers working on Ukraine, Turkey-Ukraine relations and the Wider Black Sea region. As such, it is one of the most important studies on Ukraine so far published in Turkey.

The book will be available through the online bookstores shortly. In the meantime, it can be purchased by visiting the relevant link or by contacting Terazi Publishing at hcagan@avim.org.tr
