THE 21ST ISSUE OF THE ULUSLARARASI SUÇLAR VE TARİH / INTERNATIONAL CRIMES AND HISTORY (UST / ICH) JOURNAL HAS BEEN PUBLISHED

01.12.2020

The 21st issue of the Uluslararası Suçlar ve Tarih / International Crimes and History (UST / ICH) journal has been published. As being one of the few examples of its kind in the periodical scholarly journals spectrum at the international scale, the latest issue of the UST/ICH journal has delved into a variety of topics. Our readers will realize that UST / ICH, in line with its rich publication heritage of 14 years, has expanded in this issue the article types and topics as well as the geographies it covers.

In this context, one of the research articles deals with Turkey - European Union relationship. It explores the role of being party to the Rome Statue and International Criminal Court in the accession process of Turkey to the EU. It explores the role of being party of Turkey to the Rome Statue and International Criminal Court in its accession process to the EU. Two other articles are concerning the identity formations in the Central Asia and China. Another article is dealing with the North American Indians. A final article is dealing with the notion of crime and punishment in the context of discipline in the prisons. Furthermore, we have included three book reviews.
